RETIRED-HOVEY DEFEATS SHAW. Newport, R. I., Aug. 22 (Special).-The heavy rains had made the condition of the Casino grounds so bad that it was necessary to use the big steam roller and run the chalked lines this morning before play could begin in the All-Comers' tennis tournament. Fortyof the severty-nine candidates for the National championship had dropped out of the race when the referee, Dr. James Dwight, closed the matches for the day. They will contend for the consolation prize.

This morning F. H. Hovey and O. A. Shaw were the attractions, the World's Fair champion taking the match in straight sets, 6-0, 7-5, 7-5. Shaw to-day showed some of his old-time skill. After the first set he settled down to work, coming within an ace of winning the second set, and yielding the third only after a hard struggle. After a few missites' rest the two were at it again for what proved to be the last set, the Hovey serves and Hovey smashes proving invincible. E. L. Hall and John Howland were the gair to occupy the grand stand court, and, though Hall is not playing his game this year, he had no trouble in winnigz from Howland in straight sets. 6-1, 6-1, 6-4. WINNERS IN SINGLES AT HUDSON.

Hudson, N. Y., Aug. 22 (Special).—The Hudson tends tournament opened to-day with a large number of entries. THE MYOPIAS WIN AT POLO.

THEY DEFEAT THE HARVARD TEAM IN THE MATCH FOR THE WESTCHESTER CUPS.

Sewport, R. I., Aug. 22 (Special).-Though assured of a lively game, the cottagers did not turn out to-day on the polo field as had been expected, although there was a good attendance. It was the third match for the Westchester Cups for teams of four, and the contestants were the Myoplas-A. P. Gardner, R. G. Shaw, R. M. Appleton and R. L. Agassiz; and the J. S. Wadsworth, R. Brooks, C. C. Baldwin and Elliot Cowdin. The latter team had a handleap of seven goals to start with. T. Hitchcock, jr., referee, and W. K. Thorn and Max Dorman tim The Myopias again showed the excellent team work that has characterized their play during the tournament. They also had whatever of luck ere was in the game, and finally won the victory. For the Harvards, Mr. Baltwin was by far the best player, and his work marked him as the coming successor of Mr. Keene. Mr. Brooks, though apparently not quite strong enough to handle his ponies operly, also put up an excellent game. Mr. Cowdin back was weak because he played out of position. The team work of the Harvards was greatly inferior to that of the Myopias, and only the brilliant work of Mr. Baldwin kept the score from being more onesided. Safeties were made by Baldwin, Cowdin and Shaw, and Baldwin accidentally scored one goal for he Myoplas by a carrom shot off Cowdin's pony. The Westchester men drawn to play Harvard to-mor. 'ow for the Newport Cups have defaulted, and a mem-ters' game will be played instead.

THE FRENCH ELECTIONS.

A SHORT POLITICAL MEMORY.

From The Mail and Express.

The recent French elections are conspicuous for the entire rout of the Royalists and the practical disappearance of the Boulangist faction from the French political arena. They also show that the anti-Panama sentiment has been entirely superseded by a reaction in favor of the besmirched Deputies. The result proves the ephemeral character of the French people, the shortness of its memory and the extent of public indifference to political dishonesty. From The Mail and Express.

THE REPUBLIC NO LONGER AN ISSUE.

From The Louisville Courier-Journal.

The elections this year are perhaps of less real importance than any since the establishment of the Republic. Indeed for the first time during its existence can it be said that the Republic is not itsense an Issue.

PANAMA DROPPED OUT OF SIGHT.

Prom The Boston Transcript.

Probably the reason why Panama was so little heard of was because every party had some black sheep and no one party dared to say much about the other. By tacit consent all parties have joined in the passage of an act of oblivion covering the Panama scandal.

DISTURBING ELEMENTS ELIMINATED. om The Hartford Courant.

If the Socialists have made gains, the Orieanists and Bonapartists have practically disappeared from politica, and some of the most dreaded radical critics of the Government have fared badly in the voting. Clemenceau himself has his seat still to set. THE REPUBLIC STANDS FIRM. From The New-York World.

The result of the French elections on Sunday, so far as they are decisive, indicates that republican government as a system still has the approval of such a majority of citizens that successful revolution is practically out of the question.

EASILY BEATING THE PILGRIM

WINNER OF THE ASTOR CUPS AFTER A ONE-SIDED FINAL CONTEST.

THE GREAT HERRESHOFF BOAT CROSSES THE FINISH LINE NEARLY TWENTY-IX MINUTES AHEAD OF HER ONLY RIVAL IN THE

DAY'S RACE-PROSPECTS FOR A

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Newport, R. I., Aug. 22.-The second race for the who was Governor of New-Hampshire from 1s10 to pessession of the Astor cups has finally been salled, and both the trophies repose in the possession of the Law 8 Vigilant, as every one expected that they would, bar in 1840. After practising in Nushna, Milford and Only one yacht went out to do battle on the seas with the Vigilant to-day; that bout was the Boston fin keel Fligrim, and she suffered a defeat so complete that it is almost absurd to call the affair a race. Never portant State commissions. At the time of his death portant State commissions. At the time of his death for a moment did she stand any change of winning, or for a moment did she stand any chance of winning, or even of making a creditable showing against the Vigi iant. The latter simply went out on the high sea and satisa over a triangular course of thirty miles, with the Filgrim following miles in her wake. The wind was light and not entirely steady. The sea had a long swell on, left over from the storm of yesterday It was not a day such as that on which the first rac for the Astor cups was sailed and the Vigilant sprang forth in all her fleetness and power; but it was a fair day to test a boat in light airs, and the result showed that in storms or calms there is only one Vigilant, and she is unapproachable.

The first ten miles of the course was windward work, and in this the Vigilant bent the Pilgrim 11 minutes and 21 seconds. The second leg was run part of the time with spinnakers set, and in this the Vigilant beat the Pilgrim. The Vigilant crossed th line 31 seconds ahead of the Pilgrim. At the first mark she was 11 minutes 51 seconds ahead; at the second mark, 16 minutes and 23 seconds ahead, and at the finish, she was 25 minutes and 1s seconds ahead. If the course had been longer the defeat of the Pilgrim would have been greater. The Vigitan simply lost her antagonist on the ocean, and migh just as well have sailed alone, as far as making any thing like an interesting race was concerned. The Fligrim certainly can never be a match for the Vigi ant or in any way approach that wonderful boat; but it is probable that she may be made faster than she s. At any rate, Mr. Stewart will take her to Boston errow, when he will join General Paine in "doin:

The yachts were started about 12:30 o'clock to At the time the wind blew lightly from the south-southwest and the tide was running flood A triangular course was laid off, as follows: First leg, south-southwest; second leg, east one-half north and third leg, northwest by north. The Pilgrim rossed on the starboard tack, and the Vigilant of the port tack. The Vigilant, after standing for few minutes on the port tack, came about on the starboard tack. She at once began to outpoint and cutfoot the Pilgrim. At 12:51 the Pilgrim came on the port tack and passed astern of the Vigitani The Vigilant now came about also, and when she did so the great gap of open water between the two boats showed that the race was already won, At 1:20 both yachts came on the starboard tack again. Both carried club topsails, and had for headsalls forestaysall, jib and jib-topsall. The sails on both yachts seemed to set well and draw well. At 2 o'clock the Vigilant came on the port tack and stood for the mark. The Pilgrim followed four minutes later. The wind had now hauled somewha to the westward. The Vigilant saw that she could not make the mark on that tack, and at 2:19 came on the starboard tack, and on that tack rounded. The Pilgrim stood on until 2:35, when she, too, came on the starboard tack for the mark.

The yachts rounded the first mark as follows: Vigilant, 2:17:33; Pilgrim, 2:20:25. Stoon after rounding, both yachts set their spinnakers, but were able to carry them to advantage for only about one third of the distance on the second leg. There is not much to tell of the rest of the race. The Vigilant steadily increased her lead, and the only interest in the race was as to how much she would be ahead o the Pilgrim at the second mark. The yachts rounder the second mark as follows: Vigilant, 3:41:50; Pflgrim, 4:00:17. It was now a reach to the lightship, and when the Vigilant reached there—and that was the finish line-she was 25 minutes and 18 seconds ahead of the Pilgrim.

The Vigilant made the last ten miles in 5s minutes and 15 seconds, and this in extremely light airs. A yacht that will go more than ten miles an hour in a wind as light as that which sent the Vigilant along yesterday is something which a few years age, no same man would have dared to predict.
co wonderful have been the performances of the Vigilant on this cruise that nothing that she may do will ex-cite the least surprise. People have ceased to wonder at her, and now only admire. Regarded as a rac-to-day's performance was not a success, the Pilgrin being so much inferior to the Vigilant. Regarded as an exhibition of sailing on the part of the Vigilant, it was an extremely interesting affair. The time of the race was as follows:

Start. FinIsh, Elapsed time 12,35,56 4,41,30 4,30,45 12,36,27 5,06,57 4,30,30

As the Colonia has gone to Bristol to ship a hollow boom and will probably go from there to Providence to have her keel deepened, the prospects for a race on Thursday are not encouraging, for the Fligrim sails for Boston to-morrow morning, and that would leave the Vigilant alone. The other cup defeoders have come out to do battle with her, and, the battle being over, they have scurried away to their shipyards, leaving her master of the field. The Colonia may come down from Bristol before having her keel deepened, in which case there will be a race on Thursday. There are comparatively few yachts in the harbor now. Some have gone to the eastward and some to the westward. The Vigilart seems to be accepted by everybody as the bont destined to defend the America's cup, and so interest in races between the cup defenders is dying out. The Pligrim will have two tons more of lead placed on her keel and will have her sail plan I creased when she arrives in Boston. This is expected to increase her speed.

FITTING OUT THE PURITAN.

Tarpaulin Cove, Mass., Aug. 22.-Ex-Commodore J. Malcolm Forbes is fitting out the Puritan, mending salls and fitting her up in general and, it is stated, will put her in the race with the new cup defenders.

A MATRIMONIAL MIXTURE.

COMPLICATIONS ATTENDING A DIVORCE RE CENTLY GRANTED AT NEWARK.

George Schindler, an electrician, of No. 45 Morriand Essex Railroad aves. Newark, recently secured a divorce from his wife Johanna. She is now living When schindler came to this country our years ago, he brought with him a woman who passed as his wife. He called her Mar. She was not his wife. She was Mary Hellwig, a Berlin concert her death, Schindler asked for a divorce from wife, asserting that she refused to live with him in In proof of this he submitted a letter froher, in which she was made to say that she would never live with him. The divorce was granted. One of Schindler's friends heard of the affair, and thought the proceedings peculiar. First there was the death of the wife and then a divorce. He and ome others decided to investigate. Mrs. Schiedler in Berlin. She said the letter was forgery. She thought her hu band was dead. Then it was learned that schindler had procured the divorce that he might marry a Mrs. Van Senden, of Wakeman ave. Mrs. Van Senden is a widow, forly-two years old, whose husband had had matrimonial experiences before they were married, his first wife ing commed in an asylum for the in-one. There had been no divorce, so that marriage was illegal. To sum up, Schindler lived with a woman who was of his wife. She died. Then he obtained a divorce from his lawful wife through the alleged forced letter. Mrs. Van Senden was not Mrs. Van Senden, as her husband was a bigamist. The real Mrs. Van Senden is in the Queens County Insane Asylum, and the only nd original Mrs. Schindler is in Berlin, but has made p her mind to come to America. 'In her arriva p her mind to come to America. On her arriva ere she will have the divorce set aside, and also de and a rechoning from her husband. Nor is this all he authorities of Queens County have supported the wind Mrs. Van Senden for years, believing her-e a pupper. They now have grounds on which to the the administrativa of the Van Senden estate. The mount they can claim is twenty years' board for the isane woman. Whether there will be any further evelopments or not is hard to say, but they are no utside the range of possibility.

ALDERMEN FIX THE TAX RATE.

THE FIGURE, 1.82, SEEMS SMALL, BUT THERE ARE CERTAIN COMPENSATIONS.

The Board of Aldermen met yesterday and, as fore-shalowed by The Tribune, fixed the tax rate at 1.82, although the rate computed by the city's financial experts on the delivery of the tax-rolls to the Aldermen at the first meeting in July was 1.83. The drop of 1 per-erat, as explitined vesterlay, was caused by covering into the treasury the Greenwich st. clevated railway structure experimental fund of #263,611 70, under a special ac-passed last winder.

The low tax rate, the lowest in thirty-one years, unquestionably reflects credit upon the able management of the Tax Department, supervised and directed by President Edward P. Parker. Yet the taxpayers themselves the polices they will ref when they come to commine the notices they will get from the Receiver of Taxes in a few days will scarcely find that they are so much the subjects for congratulation as Tanmany officials would have them believe. The must be raised for the city budget this year $45,022,000. as against about $33,760,000 hast year, or an increase of over $1,200,000. The real and personal valuations were raised $105,000,000, so that when the taxpayer comes to settle his individual indebtedness to the city the chances are that he will find that in spite of the reduced tax rate he will pay more for taxes than he did last year.

It must not be forgetten, too, that only the low interest on the bonds which the city is issuing in large amounts gets into the budget to affect the tax rat-The Tammany bond mill is gri ding away and large sums are yearly added to the city debt, poyable ten to forty years hence.

APPLICATIONS RECEIVED-THEIR CAMPAIGN BEGUN.

This is not the season for political activity, yet the members of the Republican Club believe that while the enemy is sleeping is the time for them to be at work to strengthen its lines as much as possible. Although the plitical leaders of both parties have taken a summer vacation and have declared an armis tice for the hot months, the young Republican workers in this organization have been fighting as hard as they could to keep up the enthusiasm of the embers of the club almost to a campaign pitch.

It was thought by many fant the resignation of Washington E. Conner from the clab on account of the stand which it took in regard to the present financial trouble would have the effect of drawing a large number of men from it. But the result has been just the reverse. Mr. Connor, who never was an active member of the club, has been the only one to leave it, and the applications for membership have been unusually large for this time of the year. Republican Club took the ground that the Silver law was not the sole cause for the present condition of iffairs. It laid the responsibility for it to the proper door-to the threshold of the Democratic party. It showed by figures that the most prosperous years which the country ever experienced were those in which the Silver law was in active operation. The club declared that this was the Democratic panic of 1803. This panic, the club said, was due to the fear of the business men of the country as to what Congress Democratic in both bratches and elected on a platform which declared that the tariff was a fraud and unconstitutional would do.

A special meeting of the club was held Monday night to take action on the application of a termber of candidates for membership. In spits of the fact that this is the time of year when bush In spite of the fact that this is the time of year when business men are out of town at night, there was a large attendance. There was no end to the enthusiasm which was displayed. As one member put it: "I am more of a Republican now than I ever was before." The meeting was a short one. William II. Leroux, of this city, was elected a resident member, and United States Senator Richard F. Pattigrew, of South Dakon; John B. Eoberty, Lew's Charles Mack, Gardner Van Nostrand, Arthur Cowee, George E. Dana and Congressman L. D. Apsley, of Massachusetts, were elected non-resident members. This is not thought to be a bed showing for a time of year when politics are supposed to be lost sight of.

The members of the clab were extremely gratified to receive applications for membership from a number of well-known Republicans. Among them were Thomas H. Carter, the chairman of the Republican National Committee; John A. Logan, John A. Flevell, of Michigan: Joseph L. Canningham, New-Jersey; Robert H. Swazye, New-Jersey; B. W. Andrews, Convecticut: S. V. Schoonmaker, New-Yora, and Jackes Converse, North Dakota. The applications of these men will be voted upon at the next meeting of the club.

THE SURROGATE MAY BE RENOMINATED. Sur ogate Rastus S. Superior and Common Pleas Courts, Surrogate Ranson's renomination has been a topic of discussion in Democratic circles especially, and among Judges and members of the bur, who prefer to see a judicial officer re-elected if he has performed good service, the expectation seemed to be general that Tanumany Hall would not refuse him another term. Opposition showed itself, however, and was reported as coming from certain men who were unable to prevail upon Surregate Ransom to recognize their assumed importance os high priests of the Wigwam when he came to decide cases in his court in which they appeared. In other words, the Surrogate Insisted on alleging to the law and precedent, and did not allow himself to be overawed or unduly influenced.

The semi-official announcement of the intention of the Democratic State machine to put up Issue II. Maynard for Judge of the Court of Appeals has aroused strong hopes among Republicans of the election of a Republican to that office this fall. Friends of ex-Surrogate Daniel Rollins, of this city, are talking of presenting his me. A well-known St. Lawrence County Republican said last evening that St. Lawrence county Republican said last evening that St. Lawrence would probably present the name of ex-Attorney-General Leslie W. Russell, Ex-Secretary Charles S. Fairchild said last evening that he was aware of no settled purpose on the part of the Anti-Snappers to oppose Maynard in case of his nomination. "I think they will support the State ticket as a whole," he added. In spite of Mr. Fairchild's foncent statement, it is known that many of the anti-Hill and New-York Citizens' Democracy are quietly preparing to knife Maynard. "They would embrace such an opportunity with great atisfaction," said a prominent Anti-Snapper yesterday,

"If Mr. Hill is fool enough to give them the chance they will 'do' Maynard more effectually, if possible, than he was laid out for Secretary of State in 1881."
